BLANKETS

We are always on the lookout with spot cash for good values in good merchandise, but our efforts have been exceedingly well rewarded in securing of a large stock of good Blankets. All are of fine quality, and decidedly choice in every way, with a large range of weights, colors and prices. Our large double cotton blanket at 85c, and our WOOL BLANKET at $5.50 are wonders. Although there has been a heavy advance in price since we contracted for these nearly a year ago, we will keep our price the same as before the raise, while this lot lasts. A good opportunity to provide for future wants. We also have many interesting values in other bedding, such as Comforters, Quilts, Pillows and Mattresses.

Cured Bright's Disease

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elkhorn, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's kidney cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle, the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." L. S. Simmons.

Entertained at Caliente

The talent, all of whom did such splendid work at the grand entertainment last Saturday evening, were entertained at dinner at Agua Caliente Springs Hotel last Sunday.

Needless to say that Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Richards had prepared a fine feast. Their lavish hospitality was greatly appreciated.

When the baby is cross and has you worried and worn out you will find that a little CASCARET, the well known remedy for babies and children, will quiet the little one in a short time. The ingredients are printed plainly on the bottle. Contains no opiates. Sold by L. S. Simmons.

California shipped ninety-eight cars of cherries this season against one hundred and forty-nine last year. But again that we shipped seventy cars of green apricots against sixteen last year.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills made. They do not gripe. Sold by L. S. Simmons.

Pedagogues Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Waters delightfully entertained a number of teachers at their fine new home on Second St. east last Friday evening. The time was pleasantly spent in social converse and chit chat after which appetizing refreshments were served. The genial host and hostess proved themselves ideal entertainers and were sincerely thanked by those present for the jolly good time enjoyed.

The guests of the evening were: Co. Supt. DeWitt Montgomery and wife, Miss Eva Fraser, of Alameda Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nolan, Miss Florence Murphy, Miss Minnie F. Cooke, Miss Ida Waterman, Principal Geo. C. Russell, R. H. Piatt, Miss Tru blood, Miss Moore and Miss Susie Long of San Luis school.

There is nothing better for stomach troubles than Kodol which contain the same juices found in a healthy stomach. KODOL is offered on a guaranteed plan for the relief of heart burn, flatulence, sour stomach, belching of gas, nausea, and all stomach troubles. So at times when you don't feel just right when you are drowsy after meals, and your head aches or when you have no ambition and you are cross and irritable, take a little KODOL. It digests what you eat. It will make you healthy. Sold by L. S. Simmons.

Fruit and Poultry

A combination of fruit growing and poultry raising is especially recommended in a bulletin from the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. Locate the poultry houses if possible, so that the runs will be in the orchard. The fowls will destroy thousands of harmful insects, thus greatly benefiting the trees and increasing the prospects for fruit, and the fowls will at the same time gain great comfort and benefit by the protecting shade of the trees. Plum trees and cherry trees are especially benefited by the presence of fowls about their roots. Peach trees will grow most rapidly and soonest give an abundant shade.

The New Pure Food and Drug Law

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. L. S. Simmons.

The pre-cooling plant at Roseville is said to be working admirably.

The postmaster of Gasconade, Mo., Daniel A. Bugh, says of DeWitt's Kidney and bladder pills, "I am doing so well, and improving so fast in health that I cannot say too much for your kidney and bladder pills. I feel like a new man." DeWitt's kidney and bladder pills are sold by L. S. Simmons.

Maionchi Will Case

Some additional evidence was adduced Monday in the contest over the will of the late Leopold Maionchi. R. A. Poppe, A. Pinch and William F. Cowan being called. The matter was submitted to Judge Denny.

Dancing Proves Fatal

Many men and women catch colds at dances which terminate in pneumonia and consumption. After exposure, if Foley's Honey and Tar is taken it will break up a cold and no serious results need be feared. Refuse any but the genuine in a yellow package. L. S. Simmons.

Various counties in the southern part of the State are combining to fight the dustless road patent.

PNEUMONIA FOLLOWS A COLD

but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heats and strengthens the lungs and prevents pneumonia. L. S. Simmons.

At an auction of sheep at Dixon recently the ewes averaged $7.85 per head. Stock was not thoroughbred, but simply grade stock.

Trinity county is offering a bounty on coyote scalps owing to many sheep having been destroyed by the pests.

HOLIDAYS NOW

Owing to the closing of the California Safe Deposit and Trust Co. closing its doors at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Gov. Gillette declared yesterday a legal holiday and will repeat the declaration from day to day until all danger of a financial panic shall have been passed.

As a result of the holidays, all banks, courts, state and county offices, etc., will remain closed until after these special legal holidays cease.

In common with the rest of the banks in the United States, the Sonoma county banks are using precautionary means to prevent a continuance of the temporary financial stringency. They are noted for their conservative management and no one feels any doubt as to the final outcome.

Death of Mrs. Nolting

Mrs. Amelia Nolting died at her home in Alameda last Monday at the age of 52 years. Deceased had many friends in Sonoma where she had formerly lived and was greatly beloved for her many noble traits of character. She was the mother of Mrs. S. August Ekland, nee Schiller, also well known in this city and a sister of Mrs. Edward Krehmer, William and Edward Nolting and a native of San Francisco. She was an honored member of Golden Gate Parlor, No. 50, N. D. G. W.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the parlors of Bunker & Lunt, San Francisco, thence to St. James' Church, on Guerrero St., where a solemn requiem mass was celebrated for the repose of her soul. Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Surprise Party.

The members of Miss Vera Buchanan's Sunday school class of the Congregational church tendered their teacher a very pleasant surprise last Wednesday evening at her home on First Street East. Miss Buchanan expects to leave soon for an extended visit east. In token of their esteem and appreciation for the work of their teacher, the class presented her with a beautiful silver-plated spoon. The evening passed all too quickly with games, social converse and dainty refreshments.

Bad Business

Some party or parties broke the glass in the show window and door of Eastland's Model Pharmacy last night. It is presumed that the parties who broke the glass were celebrating Halloween but this is no justification for the destruction of property. It would be a very proper caper for those who were having the fun to pay the damages. Prosecution of a suit for damages will be probably follow if not voluntarily settled.

A Sad Circumstance

Thos. Donahue, summoned by telegram came down from Portland, Oregon, just in time to see his beloved mother die of pneumonia at Embarcadero last Wednesday morning. While here he got word that his wife was very low and he had to return home before the burial of his mother. His many friends here hope for cheering news from his own residence.

Kicked by Horse

The little two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Silva who live below town, was kicked in the face by a horse last Sunday morning. The poor child sustained a compound fracture of the lower jaw and several other bones were broken. Dr. Loix took the little sufferer to San Francisco where an operation was performed.

Hallowe'en Pranks

Following an ancient custom, gay spirits were abroad last night transporting things moveable from the usual abiding places. Some articles hitherto considered "moveable," yielded to the arduous efforts of the spirits (?) and were found this morning in outlandish places. Imagine the difficulty one would have if he tried to hire men or boys to do as much work as was done last night.

Business Changes

J. Lucio has purchased the shoe repairing business of Chas. La Torres on First St. East, and has already taken possession. Mr. La Torres' health has not been the best of late and he will now devote all his time to outdoor work. He takes this opportunity of thanking the people for their generous patronage and bespeaks for his successor, who is an experienced workman, the same liberal treatment.

A SAD DEATH

Yesterday morning the sad intelligence reached this city of the death, from rheumatism, of Miss Mary Caminata, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Caminata, highly respected pioneer residents of Sonoma.

Miss Caminata was born in Sonoma twenty years ago. Here she received her education, being a graduate of Presentation Convent and afterwards attending the Sonoma Valley Union High School. She was always a great favorite with all who knew her, being a most estimable young lady and possessing many lovable traits of character.

She was exceptionally ambitious and by her own efforts made her way through the California Business College where she graduated with honors. At the time she was taken ill she was holding a responsible position in the metropolitan and was highly esteemed by her employers.

The passing of her noble young spirit, just beginning to realize her fondest hopes and with a life so full of promise, seems unusually sad. The sincerest sympathy of the entire community goes out to the heartbroken relatives in their hour of gloom.

The remains will be brought to this city on the morning train from San Francisco and the funeral will take place from St. Francis' Church of which deceased was a devout member, at 1 o'clock tomorrow Saturday, afternoon.

Interment will be in Catholic Cemetery.

Mrs. Goshen's Funeral

The funeral of Mrs. Amanda P. Goshen took place from the residence of her granddaughter, Mrs. J. W. Gibson, last Sunday afternoon. She was the widow of the late Dr. Goshen of Petaluma and was 84 years of age at the time of her death.

Deceased was a woman of splendid character and enjoyed the esteem of a wide circle of friends. Rev. R. Lionel Rowe was the officiating clergyman. Interment was in Mountain Cemetery.

Suit Dismissed

On Monday the suit to recover $40,000 insurance brought by the Lane Estate Company against the Connecticut Insurance Company, in connection with the destruction of the old Occidental hotel at Santa Rosa, April 18th, 1906, was dismissed in the Superior Court on Monday. It is understood that a compromise was effected between the parties to the action whereby the plaintiff receives about ten per cent of the amount sued for, or about $4,000. The case would have come to trial this week, and a large number of witnesses had been subpoenaed.

Grand Entertainment

The entertainment given in aid of St. Francis' Church in Union Hall last Saturday evening, attracted a large crowd who came from far and wide, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The entertainment was extra good and the many new features, so well carried out, were very pleasing indeed. The affair was a complete success in every way and netted a good sum for the benefit of the church.

Those having charge of the event are to be congratulated for the highly satisfactory result of their efforts.

Secured Fine Preserves

The Fairmont Club has secured the game privilege on the Poppe, Maroncelli and Spaulding places at Embarcadero. They have one of the largest and finest preserves now in this part of the State. Notices have been posted warning trespassers not to hunt on the said ranches.

NEW TIME TABLE

The regular winter schedule of the Northwestern Pacific is now in force. Consult the time table on page four and don't get left.

WARNING

All parties are hereby strictly forbidden to hunt, fish or trespass in any way on the Yulupa Land and Water Co's property west of El Verano. Trespassers will be promptly and vigorously prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen

From El Verano, Co. of Sonoma, on Oct. 26, 1907, about the witching hours of night, a very popular representative of the aforesaid burg, foremost amongst her fairest yellow-haired sons (also tow-head) did suddenly disappear from said burg.

A quiet search was instituted along the wharves and other shipping portiques of the town of Shellville. Supposition being that said bold young would-be sailor lad of a naughty-cal turn of mind, had been by force of arms, or force of habit or by some unseen steam beer agency, had been coaxed, decoyed or strayed to the aforesaid shipping point and had been forced on one of the numerous piratical crafts that infest said wharves and ranches of said Shellville. Now be it known to all mariners, farmers, pikers, tailors and sailors of the immediate vicinity, that on return of the said bold young steam beer pirate, of the bustling town of El Verano and depositing him safely into the arms of any member of the "Mulligan Guard" he will be rewarded by said noble band of patriots, with a steam (beer) roller on one of PECKS bad boys, last seen in company of a dashing young Buccaneer who refused to be shanghaied by said band of pirates, and who is still and always has been on deck.

By MULLIGAN GUARDS.

PIONEER PASSES AWAY

The angel of death visited the Donahue home at Embarcadero, last Wednesday morning and called the good mother to the better world above.

Pneumonia was the cause of death.

Mrs. Mary Donahue was a pioneer of Sonoma Valley having come here with her late husband in 1849. In 1853 they purchased the home at Embarcadero where the family have ever since resided.

Deceased was well known throughout the valley and had many friends who will learn with deep regret of the passing of this good christian woman. She was the mother of eight children all now grown. They are, Victor, Charles, Park and Thomas Donahue and Mrs. Ed Burns and Mrs. John Burns. Two boys died in youth.

The funeral took place this morning from her late residence at Embarcadero at 9 o'clock, thence to St. Francis' Church where a requiem mass was celebrated for the repose of her soul, Rev. Father Leahy officiating.

Interment was in Catholic Cemetery.

Natives Attention

The next regular meeting of Sonoma Parlor, N. S. G. W., will be held in I. O. O. F. Hall next Monday evening. A class of candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of the order and a feast will be spread. A large attendance of members is desired. Be there.

Men's

How Nature Provides.

OUR BEAUTY, HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

Is it not possible if not probable that elements necessary for the body-health are contained in the native medicinal roots found in the earth, digested in the plant laboratory of nature and made ready for man's use?

The medicinal virtues of many American plants and roots were known to the early Indians. This a root known to modern physicians as Calophyllum or Blue Cohosh was known to the Indians as "Squaw root." Another known to the Indians as "Rain forest root," is used in modern medicine as "Chimifluga."

Prof. King's American Dispensary, an authority in these matters, says: "Our Indians set a high value on Rattleweed root (Black Cohosh) in diseases of women. It is surpassed by no other drug in consecutive conditions of the parts where there are dragging pains and tenderness."

After many years of study and experiment, Dr. Pierce, the medical director of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y., put up a prescription of his own, containing the non-alcoholic, glyceric extracts of the two above mentioned ingredients, together with Golden Seal root, Lady's Slipper root and Unicorn root. Thus, there is no mystery in the make-up of this famous "Prescription." The use of alcohol is entirely avoided in its manufacture, chemically pure glycerine being found to serve the purpose of extracting and preserving the medicinal properties even better than alcohol.

Learn the Truth. The one medicine for the cure of a woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, the ingredients of which are printed on the wrapper of every bottle leaving the great Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y., where it is made, is called DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION.

It Stands Alone not only in ingredients, but also as the only specific advertised remedy for woman's diseases which absolutely contains no alcohol.

It Stands Alone as the one medicine for the cure of a woman's diseases, the makers of which take their patients fully into their confidence and tell them exactly what they are taking. This Dr. Pierce can afford to do, because his "Favorite Prescription" is made of such ingredients and after a working formula that has thousands of cures to its credit placing its merits above criticism.

It Stands Alone as Nature's cure for the diseases peculiar to women because the earth supplies the vegetable ingredients.

Mrs. Mary J. Beard (Trained Nurse, Washington Hospital), of 1706 9th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I felt badly for four years, had terrible pains at times and was often unable to be about attending to my duties; appetite was poor and sleep fitful. Tried to cure myself in various ways without success, but finally my attention was attracted to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and decided to try it. Am certain that it did for me. I began to improve with the first bottle, and gradually became better until I was entirely cured of the old trouble. Am well and can enjoy life once more."

Dr. Pierce's Good temper is largely a matter of health, and good health is largely a matter of healthy activity of the bowels. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are safe, sure and speedy, and once taken do not have to be taken always. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two will be a cathartic. They never gripe. By all druggists.

Pellets.

When Longfellow Dined.

"Yesterday I dined with Dominican friars at the convent of San Clemente, Archbishop Manning and several people of note were there. We had a jovial dinner and good wine and every dish was Italian, not to say Italianisms. After dinner we went into a small coffee room, where the Inquisitor tried to light a fire, with small success. Some one cried out, 'Ah, padre, the days have gone by when fires can be lighted by Inquisitors!' and there was a roar of laughter, in which the padre himself joined heartily."

"Yesterday Lowell gave a supper to Thackeray. We sat down at 10 o'clock and did not leave the table until 1. It was a very gay affair, with stories and jokes."

"Will you take some port?" said Lowell to Thackeray.

"I dare drink anything that becomes a man," replied T.

"It will be a long while before that becomes a man."

"Oh, no," cried Felton; "it is fast turning into one!"—Extracts From Longfellow's Letters.

A North Atlantic Curiosity.

"In the midst of the north Atlantic there is an enormous field of floating seaweed which kept its place presumably for centuries," said an old sea captain. "It occupies an area of about the fifty-sixth degree of west longitude and between the twenty-second and twenty-eighth degrees of north latitude. There is a great diversity of opinion regarding the origin of this floating mass. Some believe it to be detached from rocks at a considerable depth in the latitude where it floats. Others suppose it to come from the shores of the northern seas, having been detached from the rocks by the violence of the winds. Some again imagine that it comes from the rocky shores of Florida and Mexico, while many others agree with me in believing that it has never had any other than its present place of abode. No one has ever seen it attached to rocks, nor have rocks ever been discovered belonging to it."

What a Man's Beard Tells.

"You can tell some of a man's habits and read some of his traits of character from his beard," said the old barber. "If a man spends his days at a desk beside a window his hair and beard will grow faster on the side toward the window. Plants and beards both flourish under the influence of sunlight. Why, one of my customers found the effects of the side light so pronounced that he changed his office desk to face the window. Another interesting fact is that, when a man is up late or works long hours, he needs a shave oftener than if he took the usual amount of sleep. That's because in being awake he keeps the vital processes of his body in greater activity than when asleep. The growth of the hair depends largely on the circulation of the blood, and the heart slows down when we sleep."—Kansas City Star.

Fog and Sound.

In a fog at sea the toll of a bell buoy is singularly grave and solemn, well matched by the weird note of a whistling buoy. Unfortunately, the value of both is lessened in foggy weather from there being but little motion of the sea. Nothing, too, is more difficult than to distinguish in a fog the direction from which a sound comes. This is in part due doubtless to the interference offered to the straight course of the waves carrying the sound, but also probably to the absence of the normal, although unsuspected, co-ordination of eye and ear in locating the origin of sound. The assistance of the eye on sea and land is instinctively given to the ear in many different ways. In a fog the ear has only itself to trust to.—London Spectator.

Describing a Railroad.

The Pall Mall Gazette in 1890 asked its readers to name the worst railway in England. And one English kicker answered thus: "Sir—The Southeastern railway is the very worst railway in the world. The engines are asthmatic. Its lamps are trimmed by foolish vicars. Its fares are excessive. Its coaches ring like tin in snow in winter and are furnaces in summer. Its motto is impunctuality. Its principal station is approached through the neck of a bottle. It ruins the temper, destroys the digestion and enables one to realize the horrors of Dante's 'Inferno.' I am, sir, yours obediently, the Worm Who Turns."

Noncommittal.

"Guilty or not guilty?"

"Yes," responded the man at the bar.

"What's that?" queried the court sharply.

"You asked whether I was guilty or not guilty, and of course I am. Of the two conditions I could not well escape both."

"But which are you?"

"Aw, go on, judge! What's the jury for?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Stir on a Great State.

It is told of the Right Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., who had been attending an important conference at Lambeth palace, London, that during a very formal function he and his wife were loudly announced as "the bishop of misery and Mrs. Tuttle"—Harpers Weekly.

How We Do Change.

"Alas!" exclaimed Mr. Jellus. "Been treasuring another man's picture all these years, eh?"

"Not exactly," answered his better half. "That's a picture of you, dear, taken when you had hair."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

How poor are they that have not patience—Shakespeare.

Finance.

The agreeable visitor, says Judge, snuffed upon the son of the house and said:

"Willie, if you recite that poem your mother taught you I'll give you a penny."

"Not likely! I can get a nickel anywhere for not reciting it," Willie replied.

Checked Suspicious.

"Somehow I'm leary of Tompkins."

"Why so?"

"He's so polite."

"What's that got to do with it?"

"I'm always afraid he's stringing me."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Theo. A. Bell Honored

Hon. Theodore A. Bell, worthy Grand President of F. O. E. of the United States, was honored a rousing reception upon his return to his home in Napa last Friday evening. Visiting Eagles came in from adjoining counties on excursion trains to welcome the honored head of the order. Brass bands, fire works, oratory, banquet, all served to make this one of the greatest fraternal greetings ever held in the State.

You can't be well if you have a weak, unhealthy, irritable stomach. Neither can you feel good if by some little irregularity in eating you have caused the stomach to get out of order. These little stomach troubles are signs of indigestion, which may and very often does turn into a very bad case of dyspepsia. Don't allow this to go on a single day without doing something to overcome it. Take some good reliable and digestible laxative. KODOL for Dyspepsia. KODOL is the best remedy known today for heart burn, belching and all troubles arising from a disordered digestion. It is easy pleasant to take and affords relief promptly. Sold by L. S. Simmons.

Wise Talks by the Office Boy.

Say, fellows, I've hired out to help run the Raymond Bros. Store (Racket Store). I start in as a basement boy. I have to unpack the new goods, keep the show cases filled, sweep out, clean windows, dust, run errands, besides weighing and delivering all packages to the express and post-offices and attend to the local deliveries. I also have to help write letters and get up ads for the newspapers, but I'm not worrying about the brain power I throw in with my services. It's the leg power I'm thinking of.

Honest, I think I'm going to like my job. I like the looks of the people around the store, the boss looks good to me and I've been out of a job so long I'm actually itching for a spell of hard work, so long as it isn't too sweaty. The Fall season is here and there's lots of new hats, new fur clothing, new kids' togs and the latest suits with the smartest label on the collar of each coat coming in now. Only 40 minutes for lunch, too. I guess I'll earn my five per, all right. Watch my spici and get wise. Willie with.
